THAT AMNESTY.

[Jonesbo ough Her Id & Tribune.] . We give our readers this week the rrespondence relative to the Am resty about which much has been said. We invite a careful reading of the correspondence so that all may fully understand it. All persons against whom indict ments are pending should attend federal court at Knexville Tennesse, sept. 13th 1380, and have the same dismissed.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Angast 26th, 1880. 5 HON. GREEN B. RAUM.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Sin: - several bundred violaters of the internal revenue laws in Eastern Tennessee were amnestied by the government on your and Maj. Pettibone's recommendations at the January term 1880, of the United States circuit court at Knoxville Tennessee. on condition that they would attend the court and submit with suspension of sentence as a guarantee of future obedience to law.

In pursuing this coarse, you said in a letter to U. c. district attorney, under date of February 9th, 1880 :-"The object I have had in view was circulas ances such as may seem to to arouse in the breast of well mean- you exceptional, and to require puning citizens a sentiment favo able to ishment. Leniency should not be the enforcement of the laws, by such extended to any who have viciently an act of leniency to offenders as resisted officers in the discharge of is only necessary to have the right | would show that there was no direct official duty.

remedy, and HALL'S BALSAM is that | sition for a barsh and vindutive enforcement of the laws.

Your object has been accomplished, and this sentiment has had such very marked effect in the suppression of violation law as to doubtless have Appointments of the Electors. surpassed your most sangaine capectations, as I am sure it has of many who approved its adoption. There are a number of persons of the class amnestied, who were not beneficiaries of this leniency, and who have not since been accused of violations of the law. One reason of their not receive ing the amnesty, is because it was extended as late as the second day of the session of the court; and only those present could avail of its benefirs. The others were too remote from court, rail roads and mail facili ties to do so, sold in line In common with numerous citizens who have petitioned or written you on the subject, I ask that the ampesty he extended to this class which is the less informed, and the less criminal, which has been alreedy extended to their confederates, with such goo effects to morality, socity, and the collection of the revenue. Tue dist rict at orney has been duecied to amues v these men on the payment of the costs, with very few exceptions tois is impossible, and the result would be the imprisonment of a large class of the least guilty, and the undoing of much of the good effects of the clemency already extended, and the favorable condition of public opinion in support of the law produced by that clemency. When the salutary effects of the amnesty you have already extended is apparent and acknowledge of all to now imprison the least guilty of the whole class, on their inability to comply with an impossible condition would be regarded by the people as a "disposition for a harsh and vindicative enforcement of the laws." I know that such is not your disposition or that of others in authority, but such mind. must be done at once, as the fede al court meets at Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 13, at which time these cases will have to be disposed of.

Hoping for a favorable and imm diate response. I remain yours very truly &c.

came to court, expecting to receive, and did receive its benefits.

Probably many more would have availed themselves of the amnesty had its terms been made public ear-

For my views upon amnesty question, see letter to com'r Raum, of February, 3rd, and July 14th. See also commissioners replies. Can not | say how many would be benefitted by granting Brownlow's request. Would depend upon how many counties amnesty extended to.
